

Bethel Park School District

Troop 50189

My girls decided last year they wanted to sleepover at the Pittsburgh Zoo and PPG Aquarium with the proceeds of selling Girl Scout cookies. We had a wonderful time. The best part of the whole experience was when we woke up, the sea lion gave birth to a little girl. We were the first visitors to see the baby sea lion. My girls were so excited with this!

Submitted by: Lisa Richert, Troop Leader