

Order Received (In-Person Delivery)

1

You will receive an email from email@email.girlscouts.org with the subject “You have a Digital Cookie in-person delivery approval request!” letting you know your Girl Scout has received an order for delivery. Hooray!

2

Click the green button “View Orders Awaiting Approval” in the email. That will take you to the Digital Order Card website where you can log in. Or, go to the Digital Cookie website and log in.

3

Click on the “Cookie Orders” tab and see what orders are pending your approval.

4

You will see a list of all orders needing approval, including the customer order number, number of boxes in each order, the customer’s address, when the customer placed the order, and the number of days you have to approve it until it reverts to the customer’s second choice option.

Digital Cookie Orders

Orders Need Help?

TIPS!

- The customer’s second choice could be “Cancel” or “Donate.” Don’t risk a lost sale and a disappointed customer—approve or decline orders within ten days.
- Be sure to approve the order before delivering it to make sure the customer’s payment is accepted.

When determining whether to approve or decline the order, consider -

5

- Is the customer a known and trusted individual?
- Are you willing and able to get the cookies to the customer's location in the next ten weeks?

AND

- Do you have or will you have the inventory available?

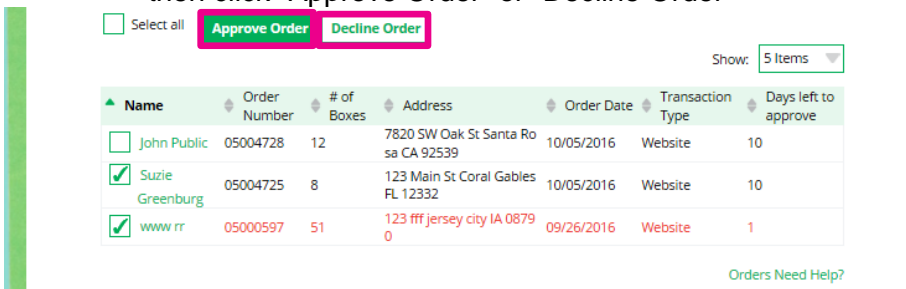

If so, "Approve Order."

If you are unable or unwilling to fulfill the customer's order, click "Decline Order" and the order will default to whatever second option the customer has selected: "Cancel" or "Donate."

6

There are multiple ways to approve and decline orders for delivery.

- a) Check the boxes in front of the orders you want to approve or decline and then click "Approve Order" or "Decline Order"

You will get a pop-up message confirming you want to approve all of the orders you selected:

Or decline all of the orders you selected:

Once you approve or decline you can't change the action and an email is deployed to the customer.

- b) Click the “Select All” box, which will select all of the orders on that page that need approval, then click “Approve Order” or “Decline Order”.

As your Girl Scout heads out to deliver her order, please be sure to review these important safety tips with her:

- Show you're a Girl Scout. Wear a Girl Scout membership pin, uniform, or Girl Scout clothing (e.g., a Girl Scout T-Shirt) to clearly identify yourself as a Girl Scout.
- Use the Buddy System. Always use the buddy system. It's not just safe, it's fun.
- Be streetwise. Become familiar with the areas and neighborhoods where you will be selling Girl Scout products. Contact your local police department if you're unsure.
- Partner with adults. If you are a Girl Scout Daisy, Brownie, or Junior you must be accompanied by an adult when taking orders or selling/delivering product. If you are selling door-to-door, adults must be present at all times during cookie booth sales.

If the customer is not in her Digital Cookie contact list, your Girl Scout can check the box in front of the customer's name and click "Add to Customers tab." Then, the customer will be in her records for sending thank-you emails this year and marketing emails next year for repeat business. This only applies to delivered orders.

Make sure you follow through and deliver those cookies. When you approve the order, the customer will be charged. Your leader will see the financial transaction as a credit to your Girl Scout in eBudde after you have approved delivering the order.

While in the site checking on orders, girls can add customers, send follow-up emails, complete badge work, or explore the great girl tools on the website. Along the way, your Girl Scout will probably pick up some good cookie program tips!
