

Girl Scout Spirit Celebration

You make the world a better place each and every time you act with kindness, serve your community, and share Girl Scouts with others. To you, it's just living the Girl Scout Promise and Law, but your impact on the world around you is much, much bigger than that. That's why we celebrate all it means to be a Girl Scout through the September Girl Scout Spirit Celebration—because we're celebrating you! See the back for rules on how to participate!

Here's your Girl Scout Spirit Activity Card:

Pick up trash while on a hike.	List 3 things that make you grateful for your troop leader then share your list with them.	Work with your parents to safely decorate your car in the theme of Girl Scouts, then drive around your community.	Send a homemade card to a friend.	Create a poster of why you love Girl Scouts and place it in your front window.	Plant a tree as part of the Girl Scout Tree Promise.
Lend a hand to someone who could use help.	Share your Girl Scout adventure at gswpa.org/adventureful for the chance to try the newest Girl Scout Cookie early.	FREE SPACE for Bronze, Silver and Gold Award Girl Scouts OR choose your own way to make the world a better place.	Visit or learn about organizations in your community that help the people or animals that live there.	Help a younger Girl Scout earn a badge.	Use chalk and decorate your driveway or sidewalk with Girl Scout pride.
Be a Girl Scout expert guest at an in-person recruitment event. Email customer-care@gswpa.org for opportunities.	Participate in a GSUSA National Service Project .	Cook and deliver a meal or dessert for family, friend, neighbor, etc.	Host a virtual or in-person Girl Scout-themed party for your non-Girl Scout friends.	Teach someone about recycling or help them start.	Invite others to play with you at school, church, etc.
Donate your old clothes/toys/books etc.	Make and deliver thank you fliers to businesses or organizations that have hosted your troop for an event or donated products for a project.*	Write a letter to your local newspaper about Girl Scouting and how it benefits your community. (Grownups can help Daisies.)	Visit a place in your community and brainstorm ideas of ways that you or your troop could improve it.	Choose your own way to spread kindness.	Speak to a group (class, friends, etc.) of people about your Girl Scout experiences, what you have learned, and why you are proud to be a Girl Scout.
Give someone a compliment.	Create a piece of art or writing that's all about Girl Scouts.	Volunteer at a local senior center or send mail to the residents.	Write uplifting, affirming messages on the sidewalk or other pavement.	Invite friends to become a Girl Scout sister and join a troop meeting.*	Hold a door open for someone.
Wear as much green as you can. Green shoes ✓ Green shirt ✓ Green hair clips ✓ Green hearts ✓ All Green Everything! ✓	Participate in Girl Scout Service Day on Saturday, Sept. 25.	Help with a chore or job that isn't yours.	Learn or review basic first aid in case of emergency.	Design a Girl Scout-themed patch for our council and share your artwork with your final submission of this card.	Paint and place kindness rocks.

Girl Scout Spirit Celebration:

How to Play: Open to Girl Scouts of all levels, the goal is to complete activities on the Girl Scout Spirit Activity Card (page 1) in ways that are right for your age and ability. Grown-ups can help as needed. As you complete the activities, color in the boxes with your favorite shade of green. Activities should be completed by Sept. 30. All cards must be submitted by Friday, Oct. 1 at 11:59 p.m.

Three ways to win:

- When you complete six activities that are in a row (horizontally or vertically only), submit your card at gswpa.org/submit to receive your Girl Scout Spirit patch. Patches are available to the first 175 Girl Scouts in western Pennsylvania who submit their card.
- Submit your activity card along with a photo of you completing activities in your vest, sash, or tunic for the chance to win a prize pack from council shops.
- Complete every activity for a cover-all! All cover-all cards will be entered for the chance to win one $50 Amazon gift card.

Scan this QR code or visit gswpa.org/submit to submit your card by Oct. 1 at 11:59 p.m.
