Medication

The camp nurse will be on-site daily for overnight camps but not 24/7. In accordance with state law, all medications (including vitamins and supplements such as melatonin) must be med-packed by a pharmacist for the duration of camp. Contact your local pharmacy for assistance. Medications will be administered by the camp nurse or self-administered by campers under the supervision of the camp director while the nurse is off-site.

Electronics at Camp

Camp has a policy of no electronic equipment. This includes cell phones, electronic games, iPod/MP3 players, laptops/iPads, hair dryers, etc. Electronic use during overnight camp greatly contributes to homesickness and thus affects your camping experience.

Any electronic devices will be confiscated, locked in the office, and returned to your adult at check-out.

Lost and Found

Please label all items packed for camp with your first and last name. Any lost and found items from the week will be on display at check-out. Lost and found will be stored at camp until the conclusion of the camp season—August 11, 2025—with every effort to reunite lost items with campers. After this date, lost and found items will be donated or discarded.

Mail

Adults—mail is an important part of overnight camp, and campers look forward to receiving notes and letters from their friends and family. You may either leave mail at check-in (labeled with your camper's name and the day you would like them to receive it) or you can mail it ahead of time to camp. Do not include any food in any care packages or mail! Please be sure to send items approximately two weeks before your Girl Scout's camp session to ensure their arrival time.

Swim Check

During your first visit to the swimming pool, you will participate in a “swim check.” During the swim check, you are asked to swim across the pool and tread water. This determines if you can freely swim in the deep end of the pool. If you do not pass the swim check, that is okay! You can swim and splash freely in the shallow end of the pool. Camp Conshatawba always has a lifeguard on duty.

Photos of and Updates

Photos will be taken during camp of you participating in various camp activities. These photos will be uploaded to the Rallyhood page throughout the week. (Your adult will receive an email invite to this page.) Updates and fun tidbits about your unit and session will also be shared on Rallyhood. Due to extremely limited internet service and a busy schedule, camp staff do their best to upload photos and updates as often as possible.

Trading Post

Camp Conshatawba has a camp store that we call the Trading Post. You will visit the Trading Post at least once during your stay at camp. The Trading Post has items like camp T-shirts, sweatshirts, ice cream, stickers, playing cards, etc. that range in price from $3 to $40. Adding money to your trading post account is optional. We recommend about $25/week. To provide a smoother and safer service, overnight camp is going cashless. You can use our virtual Camp Trading Post to deposit funds or elect to use Girl Scout Bucks or Indie Girl Scout Program Rewards. Money that is not spent during the week will be returned in the form of a gift certificate.

Travel Programs and Transportation

There will be a specific packing list for travel programs that will be sent separately, along with a detailed description of the agenda. In case of an emergency, your adult will be provided with a number to contact camp that will be forwarded to the staff on the travel program.

Vehicles will be provided, and they undergo an inspection before every use in accordance with ACA procedures.
