

Today is Girl Scout Sunday.

Spiritual traditions give girls a sense of history and unity, as they aspire to be their best selves.

Girl Scouts Western Pennsylvania and faith-based communities share an enduring tradition that dates back to the beginning of Girl Scout history. Today we celebrate our partnership and collaboration with you and thank you for supporting Girl Scouts in your place of worship.

Girl Scout Sunday is also an opportunity to highlight the awards Girl Scouts can earn through their faith communities. For Girl Scouts, religious recognition programs reinforce many of the values they learn through Girl Scouting and help them grow stronger in and learn more about their chosen faith.

You can learn about faith-based programs and recognitions for Girl Scouts at gswpa.org.

“The motivating force in Girl Scouting is spiritual.”

— Preamble, Constitution of Girl Scouts of the USA

Girl Scout Mission

Girl Scouting builds girls of courage, confidence and character, who make the world a better place.

The Girl Scout Promise

On my honor, I will try:
To serve God and my country,
To help people at all times,
And to live by the Girl Scout Law.

Girls cannot experience the positive impact of Girl Scouts without inspiring adults—like you—to lead them. Through Girl Scouts, you can make a real difference in the life of a girl.

Girl Scout volunteers come from all walks of life; they're men, women, young professionals, retirees, college students and more. Learn about becoming a Girl Scout troop leader at gswpa.org or call us at 800-248-3355.
