

2025 Woman of Distinction Nonprofit

Rosamaria Cristello
Founder and Executive Director
Latino Community Center (LCC)

Rosamaria Cristello is the founder and executive director of the Latino Community Center, an organization whose ultimate goal is to ensure Latino children, youth, and families have the tools and opportunities needed to reach their full potential through educational programming, family support services, and community building in the Pittsburgh region.

Rosamaria leads the vision and creation of the Latino Community Center by building a strong team and governance structure for the organization so that the Latino community in Pittsburgh can have a trusted organization that will grow with them and be responsive to the ever-changing needs of the community.

Rosamaria is passionate about serving and empowering Latino families and helping others gain the tools and knowledge to do so as well.